ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to express my love and gratitude to the following people: Janet Mills for lovingly nurturing this book from conception to completion. Rita Chopra, Mallika Chopra, and Gautama Chopra for being the living expression of The Seven Spiritual Laws.

Ray Chambers, Gayle Rose, Adrianna Nienow, David Simon, George Harrison, Olivia Harrison, Naomi Judd, Demi Moore, and Alice Walton for their courage and commitment to a vision that is awesome, inspiring, lofty, noble, and life-transforming. Roger Gabriel, Brent Becvar, Rose Bueno-Murphy, and all my staff at the Sharp Center for MindBody Medicine for being inspiring examples to all our guests and patients. Deepak Singh, Geeta Singh, and all my staff at Quantum Publications for their unflagging energy and dedication.

Muriel Nellis for her unflinching intention to maintain the highest level of integrity in all our endeavors.

Richard Peri for being such a great example of self-referral. Arielle Ford for her unshakable faith in self-knowledge and her infectious enthusiasm and commitment to transform the lives of so many people.

And Bill Elkus for his understanding and friendship.

INTRODUCTION

Although this book is titled The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success, it could also be called The Seven Spiritual Laws of Life, because these are the same principles that nature uses to create everything in material existence everything we can see, hear, smell, taste, or touch. In my book, Creating Affluence: Wealth Consciousness in the Field of All Possibilities, I have outlined the steps to wealth consciousness based on a true understanding of the workings of nature. The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success form the essence of this teaching. When this knowledge is incorporated in your consciousness, it will give you the ability to create unlimited wealth with effortless ease, and to experience success in every endeavour. Success in life could be defined as the continued expansion of happiness and the progressive realization of worthy goals. Success is the ability to fulfill your desires with effortless ease. And yet success, including the creation of wealth, has always been considered to be a process that requires hard work, and it is often considered to be at the expense of others. We need a more spiritual approach to success and to affluence, which is the abundant flow of all good things to you. With the knowledge and practice of spiritual law, we put ourselves in harmony with nature and create with carefulness, joy, and love. There are many aspects to success; material wealth is only one component. Moreover, success is a journey, not a destination. Material abundance, in all its expressions, happens to be one of those things that makes the journey more enjoyable. But success also includes good health, energy and enthusiasm for life, fulfilling relationships, creative freedom, emotional and psychological stability, a sense of well-being, and peace of mind. Even with the experience of all these things, we will remain unfulfilled unless we nurture the seeds of divinity inside us. In reality, we are divinity in disguise, and the gods and goddesses in embryo that are contained within us seek to be fully materialized. True success is therefore the experience of the miraculous. It is the unfolding of the divinity within us. It is the perception of divinity wherever we go, in whatever we perceive in the eyes of a child, in the beauty of a flower, in the flight of a bird. When we begin to experience our life as the miraculous expression of divinity not occasionally, but all the time then we will know the true meaning of success. Before defining the seven spiritual laws, let us understand the concept of law. Law is the process by which the unmanifest becomes the manifest; its the process by which the observer becomes the observed; its the process by which the seer becomes the scenery; its the process through which the dreamer manifests the dream.

All of creation, everything that exists in the physical world, is the result of the unmanifest transforming itself into the manifest. Everything that we behold comes from the unknown. Our physical body, the physical universe anything and everything that we can perceive through our senses is the transformation of the unmanifest, unknown, and invisible into the manifest, known, and visible.

The physical universe is nothing other than the Self curving back within Itself to experience Itself as spirit, mind, and physical matter. In other words, all processes of creation are processes through which the Self or divinity expresses Itself. Consciousness in motion expresses itself as the objects of the universe in the eternal dance of life. The source of all creation is divinity (or the spirit); the process of creation is divinity in motion (or the mind); and the object of creation is the physical universe (which includes the physical body).

These three components of reality spirit, mind, and body, or observer, the process of observing, and the observed are essentially the same thing. They all come from the same place: the field of pure potentiality which is purely unmanifest. The physical laws of the universe are actually this whole process of divinity in motion, or consciousness in motion. When we understand these laws and apply them in our lives, anything we want can be created, because the same laws that nature uses to create a forest, or a galaxy, or a star, or a human body can also bring about the fulfillment of our deepest desires. Now let's go over The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success and see how we can apply them in our lives.

The law of pure potentiality

The source of all creation is pure consciousness, pure potentiality seeking expression from the unmanifest to the manifest.

And when we realise that our true Self is one of pure potentiality, we align with the power that manifests everything in the universe.

In the beginning there was neither existence
nor non-existence,

All this world was unmanifest energy . . .
